Bible Reading Record

If you would like to read through the Bible in a year, take only 15 minutes each day. Read three chapters every weekday and five on Sundays.

How you read is more important than how much you read. Be alert as you read. Picture yourself in the story. Ask yourself the meaning of what you read. Ask what it teaches you to believe, to become, to do.

Mark or underline passages that seem especially helpful. Memorize them. Discuss them with family and friends

Set aside a definite time each day for Bible reading. Make it a habit—but keep it meaningful.

In the New Testament, it is suggested that the Gospel of Mark be read first followed by the other Gospels. Then read the Acts of the Apostles, followed by the letters of Paul and others, and last the book of Revelation.
